Temporary Changes to St Bees Parish Council Standing Orders/Financial Regulations approved March 2020

The following changes to Standing Orders & Financial Regulations were approved by the Parish Council on 16 March 2020 in light of the government announcement of a national lockdown to prevent the transmission of Covid-19. These changes were intended to allow essential business to be conducted whilst government regulations prevented the Parish Council from holding meetings and remained in place until June 2020 when new regulations were introduced to allow remote meetings.

- The limit for emergency/exceptional expenditure which could be authorised by the Chairman & Clerk was increased to £1000 per item
- The Clerk was given delegated power to authorise expenditure on any item up to the limit of the budget for that item of expenditure
- The powers delegated to the Clerk in Standing Orders to respond to planning applications was extended to give the Clerk the power, in consultation with the Chairman & Vice Chairman, to respond to any matter on which comments or decisions were required before the council was next able to meet.
- Bank reconciliations were independently checked electronically. Scanned copies of bank statements were sent by email together with copies of the cashbook. It was not possible to share the cheque book in light of advice to avoid handling documents. Once the checks were completed, confirmation was sent by email and attached to the hard copy.
- Allotment tenants were encouraged to pay rents by bank transfer to avoid handling cheques.
- Cheque signing was kept to a minimum but had to be maintained for certain payments. The cheque was prepared by the Clerk and dropped through the letter box of one signatory with a stamped addressed envelope for posting the payment. The first signatory then put the cheque & envelope through the letter box of a second signatory. Once meeting outdoors was allowed, the Clerk was able to meet cheque signatories out of doors to arrange signatures with appropriate hand sanitising and social distancing precautions in place.
- Signing of legal documents was done out of doors with Covid precautions in place.
